1. Such direct recruitment shall be in respect of both permanent and temporary posts of the Bihar Superior Judicial Service.
2. The vacancies as on 31.03.2025 shall be taken into account.
3. The same procedure shall be adopted in the case of candidates practicing as Advocates outside the State of Bihar as would be applicable in respect of Advocates practicing within the State of Bihar.
4. The selection process will comprise Written and Viva-Voce test.
5. The High Court may decide to hold screening test with a view to shortlisting the candidates and may prescribe minimum qualifying cut-off marks for appearing in the Written Test. The marks obtained in the screening test will be relevant for determining eligibility to appear at the written test. Such marks will not be counted for determination of comparative merit of the candidates.
6. Candidates approximately ten times the number of vacancies for appointment, will be called for written test on the basis of marks obtained in Screening Test, if held. The candidates, approximately three times the number of vacancies for appointment, will be called for Viva-Voce test on the basis of marks obtained in Written Test.
 - (a) The full marks for screening test, if held, shall be 300 and it shall be of 100 questions and each question will carry 03 marks but each wrong answer will incur 01 negative mark. It shall be of objective type. In the screening test, the questions will be in the subjects of Law, English Language, General and Computer Knowledge. The questions in the subject of law, for screening test, would be in respect of provisions contained in the following enactments : (1) The Constitution of India; (2) The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908; (3) The Limitation Act, 1963; (4) Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS); (5) Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023; (6) The Transfer of Property Act, 1882; (7) The Indian

Contract Act, 1872; (8) The Specific Relief Act, 1963; (9) The Sale of Goods Act, 1930; (10) The Indian Partnership Act, 1932; (11) The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881; (12) The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996; (13) The personal Laws (Hindu, Muslim and Christian); and (14) Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (BNS).

(b) In the Written Test, there may be as many papers with marks for each paper, as may be decided by the High Court, for the said examination on the subjects hereinafter provided :-

(1) The Constitution of India; (2) The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908; (3) The Limitation Act, 1963; (4) Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS); (5) Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023; (6) The Indian Contract Act, 1872; (7) The Sale of Goods Act, 1930; (8) The Indian Partnership Act, 1932; (9) The Specific Relief Act, 1963; (10) The Transfer of Property Act, 1882; (11) The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881; (12) The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996; (13) The Personal Laws (Hindu, Muslim and Christian); (14) The Motor Vehicles Act, 1988; (15) The Family Courts Act, 1984; (16) The Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988; (17) The Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989; and (18) Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (BNS).

(c) The ratio of marks of theory papers and viva-voce will be 80% and 20%.

(d) A candidate will be called for viva-voce only if he secures atleast 45% in each theory paper.

(e) A candidate will qualify for appointment if the candidate secures atleast 45% marks in each theory paper, 30% marks in viva-voce/interview and 50% marks in aggregate in written test (theory papers) and viva-voce taken together.

(f) The minimum qualifying marks in the Preliminary Test/ Screening, if held, would be relaxed for reserved category candidates, including women and orthopedically disabled candidates by 5%.

Similarly, there shall be relaxation of 5% marks in each theory paper; whereas 45% in aggregate of the written examination and viva-voce, would be qualifying marks for the reserved category candidates including women & orthopedically disabled candidates, provided they secure qualifying marks, i.e., 30% in interview.

7. Candidates selected for appointment shall draw pay in the time scale sanctioned for District Judge (Entry Level) with all other admissible allowances.

8. Candidates selected for appointment shall be on probation for a period of one year. The period of probation shall continue even after the expiry of such period until and unless such service is expressly confirmed. They will not be confirmed unless they are found suitable in every respect for substantive appointment to the Bihar Superior Judicial Service. After confirmation in the service, the period spent on probation shall be counted towards leave, pension and increment in the time scale of the service. Their services may be terminated any time during the probation period, if not found satisfactory.
9. It is hereby made clear that all further or other steps in relation to such examination and recruitment, including holding Screening test, Written Test and interview, as is not otherwise provided herein shall be determined by the High Court.
10. Candidates are required to pay Rs. 1500/- as examination fee (Rupees 750/- for SC/ST and OH candidates from Bihar) online by following the link while filling up the form on website of the Court (www.patnahighcourt.gov.in);
